We Come together every week
Bound not by a creed,
Or a mutual desire to please one God, or many gods
Yet we are bound together by a belief,
That how we are in the world,
Who we are together matters.
We light this chalice, together in the knowledge
That love, not fear, can change the world.

Welcome to the Auction!

On behalf of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the South Jersey Shore, welcome to our 19th Annual UUCSJS Auction. The money raised on auction night will be used to support our liberal religious presence here in southern New Jersey. Last year's event was held in person after the difficult years of the pandemic, and we're grateful to be enjoying each other's company again this year.

On Saturday evening, November 16, 2024, the Sanctuary is transformed as festive tables display the auction's many enticements. Drinks and light finger foods will be on hand. Featured that evening once again will be the Live Auction conducted by long-time auctioneer, Paul Utts. Before the live action begins, you will enjoy bidding on Events, Services, Handmade Items and Other Items donated by our members and friends. And don't neglect the Chance Auction tables! Buy your tranche of Chance tickets as you enter and use them to win all your favorite items. Winning tickets are drawn on auction night.

You can preview auction offerings ahead of time in the colorful 19th Annual UUCSJS Auction catalog. Catalogs will be emailed to members and friends the week before the event — on or before Sunday, November 10 — and available on the UUCSJS website. A limited number of catalogs, photocopied in black & white, will also be available at the Center on Sunday morning, November 10.

As you check in on auction night itself, you will be issued a 19th Annual Auction Night Tally Sheet to record your winnings. You will affix winning stickers to this sheet for each offering you win and this tally sheet will then be used at checkout to add up the amount you owe.

This annual event has never been possible without the generosity of many. It is definitely a big team effort. Thanks to all of you who have participated and helped already and who will do so up to and including auction night at the UU Center.

Most of all, thanks to those who have donated to the auction and to the generosity of members, friends, and family who will be in attendance and bidding enthusiastically.

Thank you so much for your support!

IT ALL STARTED HERE

Murray Grove's story is a story of a farmer whose faith sustained him, and a man so lost to the world that he sailed thousands of miles only to be found by the farmer. A story of pilgrimage and hope and perfect timing. Murray Grove is a sacred place to many, a historic site to others, and a place where people gather to get in touch with their roots, themselves, and one another.

Who We Are...

Welcome to UUCSJS and Unitarian Universalism, a religion that celebrates diversity of belief and is guided by seven principles. Our congregations are places where we gather to nurture our spirits and put our faith into action through social justice work in our communities and the wider world.

Newcomers are welcome. There is no formal conversion process, so becoming a Unitarian Universalist is simply a matter of self-identification. Membership is voluntary and does not require renouncing other religious affiliations or practices.

We invite you to explore our website, www.uucsjs.org, and visit us on Sundays for a 10:30 a.m. service, and discover Unitarian Universalism!

There are seven principles which Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;

As dogs

A poem by Rachel B Glaser

I try a new way of imagining people
as dogs
as dogs it makes sense
why anyone would be drawn to do anything
just as dogs rub themselves
in patches of grass
or suddenly lick a face

as dogs you can surely forgive
your mother
because she makes a funny dog
with frilly fur and worried eyes
and as a dog, is it so bad
you spend so much time
recalling a certain smell
or staring too long and too intently at a torn leaf in a hot tub

a dog falls ill and says nothing over time, they destroy the things they love

picture whoever is giving you trouble or whatever part of you desires more than it has
then see a dog
pulling against the chain gripping his neck
or barely moving under a bench watch the dog run away from everything it knows
do you blame them?

Still I Rise

BY Maya Angelou

You may write me down in history
With your bitter, twisted lies,
You may trod me in the very dirt
But still, like dust, I'll rise.

Does my sassiness upset you?
Why are you beset with gloom?
'Cause I walk like I've got oil wells
Pumping in my living room.

Just like moons and like suns,
With the certainty of tides,
Just like hopes springing high,
Still I'll rise.

Did you want to see me broken?
Bowed head and lowered eyes?
Shoulders falling down like teardrops,
Weakened by my soulful cries?

Does my haughtiness offend you?
Don't you take it awful hard
'Cause I laugh like I've got gold mines
Diggin' in my own backyard.

You may shoot me with your words,
You may cut me with your eyes,
You may kill me with your hatefulness,
But still, like air, I'll rise.

Does my sexiness upset you?
Does it come as a surprise
That I dance like I've got diamonds
At the meeting of my thighs?

Out of the huts of history's shame
I rise
Up from a past that's rooted in pain
I rise
I'm a black ocean, leaping and wide,
Welling and swelling I bear in the tide.

Leaving behind nights of terror and fear
I rise
Into a daybreak that's wondrously clear
I rise
Bringing the gifts that my ancestors gave,
I am the dream and the hope of the slave.
I rise
I rise

Auction Guidelines cs

The 19th Annual UUCSJS Auction starts officially at 5:30 PM on Sat., November 16, 2024, with doors opening for previews at 5:00. The Auction Committee reserves the right to withdraw any offering at any time without notice before the actual sale. Last minute events, services, or items may also be added to the auction offerings at any time up to and including auction night itself. In the event of any dispute, the Auction Committee shall act as final authority in determining the winning bid.

For the LIVE AUCTION: You may bid on any live auction item or service during the Live Auction on the evening of Sat., November 16 at the UU Center. Minimum or opening bids are usually noted with the offer and can be modified by the auctioneer at any time during the proceedings. Bidding continues until all items or services are sold (or the auctioneer closes the bidding on the item or service). Note that a bid duly acknowledged by the auctioneer is a legal contract to purchase the offering. (If you cannot attend in person, you may make use of the Proxy form found on page 13, below.)

For the EVENTS: You — or you and your partner — may sign up for one small dinner or other similar event during the first round of open bidding. This constraint is meant to give everyone present the chance to obtain a small dinner or similar event of their choice. After that first round is complete, you may sign up for any space which is open for any event up to the time bidding on Events officially closes. Winners will get an event sticker for their tally sheet if they win a spot at any event.

Any unsold auction events will be available for sign up and payment on the Sunday following the auction, and may then be offered later by special announcement and/or through Breeze, our church software program. Instructions for using Breeze will be forthcoming, if applicable.

For the SERVICES, HANDMADE ITEMS, and OTHER ITEMS: You may bid on any service or item at any time after the auction opens at 5:30 p.m. on auction night. Minimum or opening bids are so stated with the offering. Take note of multiple offers, if any, or whether the service or item is one-of-a-kind. Also, please note that table monitors may modify opening bids up or down at their discretion as the auction proceeds (except for Fixed Price items). Bidding continues until all bidding on Services, Handmade Items, or Other Items officially closes, at which time the highest bid wins. You will get a sticker from the table monitor to put on your tally sheet if you win. Signing the bid form constitutes a legal contract to purchase the service or item at that price.

For the CHANCE ITEMS: You can purchase Chance tickets at the ticket table as you enter the auction on auction night, as follows: 20 tickets for $20 and 40 tickets for $30. (Each additional tranche of 20 is just $15.) You bid on individual items by placing tickets in the container bearing the number of the item on which you want to bid. After time is officially called on Chance Items, a random drawing will be held to select the winners.

Payment

At the end of the evening you will present your 19th Annual Auction Night Tally Sheet at the checkout table where you will settle your account and obtain a receipt. Your timely settlement of this amount due is expected and will be appreciated.

Item Pickups

If you are the winning bidder on any Live Auction, Chance, or any other Item, please take the item away with you on auction night. If this is not feasible, the item may be picked up from a downstairs RE classroom within the next fourteen (14) days. Although effort will be made to reunite items with the winning bidder, after time expires (and before Thanksgiving), items left behind may be removed and donated, unless special arrangements are made.

Winners of Services are responsible for contacting the donor, and vice versa, in order to arrange for and receive the services offered. Winners of Events will be so notified by the Events coordinator, and then later contacted by those who are offering the event.

Auction Events Cancellations

Event hosts will personally contact participants prior to their event to confirm attendance. If a guest, after signing up and paying, cannot attend an event on the stated date, it is the guest's loss. The host is under no obligation to make up the event for that guest.

If the host needs to cancel, for any reason (e.g., illness, inclement weather, etc.), the host will reschedule the event. If this is not possible, or not possible to reschedule when all guests can attend, those who cannot attend may request a refund from the UUCSJS Treasurer.

If the event does not have a planned date at the time of the auction, and the host cannot find a date that is acceptable to everyone who signed up and paid, the host should hold the event more than once, or in some way take responsibility to please all guests.

Terms of Sale

Unless otherwise noted, all certificates for goods and services must be used within one (1) year of the auction date. All items and services are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the donors.

All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or refunds. UUCSJS does not make any expressed or implied warranties or guarantees on auction items regarding quality or value of items or services. UUCSJS has attempted to describe and catalog all items correctly, but all items are offered and sold "AS IS" and "WITH ALL FAULTS."

UUCSJS neither warrants nor represents, and in no event shall be responsible for the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance or condition of the items. No statement made in this catalog or made orally at the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed such a warranty for tax purposes or market value. Items have not been appraised unless otherwise noted.

By the buyer's purchase, the buyer waives any claim for liability against UUCSJS, its elected and appointed officials, members and employees, sponsors, volunteers connected with the auction, and/or the donor of the item. Neither the UUCSJS nor the donor is responsible for any personal injuries or damage that may result from the use of the property or services.

Tax Information

This catalog lists the fair market value of each item, when available. Any amount you pay in excess of the fair market value would normally be available to you as a charitable contribution for tax purposes. Please check with your tax adviser for specifics.

Bidding By Proxy

If you cannot attend the auction, you can give this proxy to a friend and have them bid for you on any Live Auction item or service, or any other items not yet sold, except that proxies
